PBA of New York State Law Enforcement Endorses Robin Dalton for Saratoga Springs
Commissioner of Public Safety

ALBANY – The Police Benevolent Association of New York State Law Enforcement (PBA of NYS) endorses Robin Dalton in her bid to become the City of Saratoga Springs Commissioner of Public Safety.

The PBA of NYS Law Enforcement represents New York State University Police, the New York State Environmental Conservation Police, the New York State Park Police, and the New York State Forest Rangers.

“Robin Dalton is a wife and mother of four children, yet she has balanced that with an incredible professional work ethic and unparalleled commitment to Saratoga Springs’ safety”, said Dan De Federicis, Executive Director and Counsel to the PBA of NYS and a 13 year Saratoga Springs homeowner and resident. “This position needs someone with the impeccable integrity that Robin brings, and the PBA of NYS is honored to give her this well-earned endorsement.”

The process for selecting candidates includes candidate questionnaires and additional research into a candidate’s background and positions on issues deemed important to PBA of NYS members.

The PBA of New York State is the exclusive bargaining agent for the New York State University (SUNY) Police, the New York State Environmental Conservation Police, the New York State Park Police, and the New York State Forest Rangers. Our members police and protect New York State’s public universities and colleges; state parks and historic sites; and they enforce state laws and protect our lands and forests and ensure environmental safety and quality throughout the state.
